

COM-CYCLE

FROM AERC RECYCLING SOLUTIONS

YOUR SOLUTION FOR ELECTRONIC WASTE

Com-Cycle is a full service electronics recycler specializing in Asset Recovery, Environmental Compliance and Information Destruction.

Every year Americans and American Companies update their computer systems to stay current with changing technology. As these changes take place, the obsolete computer equipment creates a considerable amount of electronic waste that until recently was put directly into landfills. AERC, in conjunction with Com-Cycle, is committed to keeping electronic waste and its hazardous components out of landfills.

SERVICE WITH CHOICES

We are committed to a brighter, cleaner future and are focused on providing superior service to our customers. We offer three levels of service for electronic waste, allowing each individual customer to choose the level that meets their unique requirements.
